

Employees possessing a positive work attitude and demonstrating strong values are crucial to an employer's success. The goal of employee engagement is to increase each employee's drive to succeed in their role. Note that it isn't the same as "work satisfaction". An engaged workforce is a productive workforce brought about by a strong employer-employee relationship. Learn more on how to engage employees through tested strategies and new approaches in this training course.

At the end of this course, participants should be able to:
